The wheels just grazed her body, bruising and cutting the skin on her back and limb. She was also cut in the back of the head. She was able to be out Tuesday.

NEWS NOTES AND COMMENT

Oh, how joyous is vacation. Cheerful time of recreation. Full of life and animation. When with feelings of elation. We abandon our vocation. And enjoy the sweet sensation Of entire relaxation.

The above jingle of words is all right for town people, teachers, ministers, shut-ins and others who are employed about six hours a day, or only a part of one day a week at a high salary; but how does it appeal to those who labor from early morning dew to evening twilight, who are engaged in the sweat and toil of the day, and who have to work for their bread?

Their only vacation is hitch up or crank up and attend the county fair or a grange picnic.

The price of wheat is soaring and last week Thursday it was quoted at $1.30 a bushel.

The Carrollton Sunday school picnic will be held on the Carrollton fair grounds Friday.

A small snake was killed in the court house basement last Friday; it may have escaped from some one's boots.

The Carrollton ball team lost both games of the double header Thursday and Friday, 8 to 3 and 8 to 2.

L. D. Headley, of the state automobile department, was here Wednesday and got a few persons who were operating machines with 1915 license tags. They were let off with minimum fines.

The Carlisle Indians played ball here last week and defeated our boys two days out of five. They came here under the management of Max Ostrosky, a Carrollton player, and disbanded for the season.

The low temperature of last Sunday reminded me of an old saying: "A cold out of every dozen used in Carrollton are Fords. Even the 5 and 10 cent stores has them."

The Disciple people here who attended their doctrinal Congress in Canton came home refreshed and well pleased. "They know of the doctrine which it is to be."

This village is remarkably healthy, as nearly everybody uses city water, taken from the same wells at the waterworks pumping station.

Township picnics are being largely attended by state, county and district candidates and speakers, who make themselves fresh.

My beautiful roses have faded and gone, but my hibiscus and rhododendrons are fresh.

A North Carolina son of Ham has set up a shoe shining stand on our public square, and many young men have been out of curiosity and to talk with the colored gemman.

For the tenth time the sale of the W. & L. E. railroad through here has been postponed until the 8th of next month.

During the past two weeks the farmers have been selling stacking ears in town at 25c a dozen, and find a ready market.

Rev. Stewart of the Presbyterian church and Rev. Adams of the U. P. Church are away upon their August vacation for a "much needed rest" and their congregations also enjoy the respite.

Sunday afternoon I walked over my youthful haunts along the creeks, "where green grows the rushes O" where in days long since I fished for crabs and minnows with a pin hook and came home hungry and comfortable.

Those who fail to read all the correspondence in The Dispatch fail to get their money's worth. I find many familiar names each week, and in the last few issues I failed to see anything from the Island correspondent. Too busy harvesting, I presume.

Much old hay is being baled in this vicinity and shipped from this station to Pittsburgh and other points. It may yet be needed at home if barns continue to be burned.

Hon. D. O. Rutan wool buyer of that county, was in Lisbon last week's sacking wool. He sacks millions of pounds each year. Every farm should have a few sheep and goats; they clean up briar patches and the Billy goats drive away the sheep-killing dogs.

H. H. Getz may be expected at Alliance this week Thursday to attend the annual reunion of the 115th regiment.

O. J. D. Bessert was a Columbiana caller Wednesday evening.

May long life and happiness attend the marriage of Mayor Ed. Girard and Miss Muriel Macintosh—a union of La Belle France and the Scotia Clans.

Both of the couple are desirable citizens and have the respect of all who know them.

Vic Donahay, auditor of state, will receive bids for oil and gas leases on the northeast quarter of section 16, township 14, range 6, Carroll county. This is the school land in Union township.

There are fifteen persons here who are eligible to admission into the appendicitis society.

The men's bible class of the Minerva Methodist Sunday school came to Carrollton in 15 autos Friday evening and had an enjoyable time with the men's bible class here, who were in Minerva a few weeks ago. The large meeting house was lighted from basement to gallery for the occasion. The Epworth brass band furnished much of the music for the occasion. "And all the while sonorous metals blowing sacred sounds." After a sumptuous supper the remaining hours were spent in speeches and conversation, until they returned at 11 o'clock p. m.

Prof. John D. Sommerville, of Ruthersford, N. J., with the Drake school of Passaic, N. J., was here Wednesday. Mr. Sommerville is well known in Carroll county and was a leading educator in Harrison county. I forgot to inquire if he is related to Jock and Oor Dave.

Prof. and Mrs. Louis K. Manley of the Peabody High, Pittsburgh, were here last week at the home of his parents at the Methodist parsonage. This is the man who stirred up trouble for Prof. Orr in Columbiana a few years ago.

Mrs. Martha Holder, widow of the late Judge Holder, died last week Monday, leaving her estate of $75,000 to three nieces. Her grave lot is to contain neither monument nor flowers.

Firestone got 541 votes in Carroll county; Hollingsworth, 539; Metzger, 58, and Tellow 114. For state representative Rev. J. W. Gorrell defeated H. R. Kemmerer for the 3d term.

I was sorry to read in last week's Dispatch that Master Harold Wilson had been injured by an auto in Youngstown, and only hope that "Shook" will some day own a machine of his own so that he can run over some other people's kids.

This is the month for the Calvin, Roller, Bates, Zimmerman reunions. As I cannot attend them all, the committees can send my share by parcel post. They have a photo of the boy's cabin built by the Calvin in Beavertown (I think), and I would like to see a photo of Dave eating a square meal and then wipe his mouth on his sleeve. I spent two days and a night at Dave's home and was never treated better. Arnold Shoop, who runs the refreshment stand at the reunions at Stop 9, where "old glory" waves over many generations and W. E. Roller has their reunion "just as they make it."

Taxpayers who desire to file complaints as to values set either on personal or real property should apply to the county auditor for blanks. Complaints must be filed on or before September 6, 1916. Complaints must be confined to valuations this year.

I am pleased to know that my old friend, Wm. Dalrymple of Washingtonville is again nominated for sheriff of Columbiana county and hope he will land the plum this time yet "the best laid plans of mice and men gang aft a-gley." Dal will make the best sheriff ever elected in his county. However, it's a pity to put him into such a rattle-trap of a jail as they have in Lisbon; but that's the way the county is run.

Percy lands in Washington he will have a much nicer building. He ought to be elected some time, but there's not enough room on the ticket for all who should win.

For Court of Appeals, in Carroll county, Mr. Ford got 960 and Wilkins, 520. And for U. S. Senator, Herrick got 975, Dick got 281, Daugherty got 275, Cassel got 56, Probasco got 34. For Governor, Willis got 1451; Shaw got 108, and Mack got 101.

The farmers of Carroll county seem to have it in for a Carrollton man, as candidates as a rule have been with opposition was nominated. On the democratic ticket, Cox had 175 and Sandles 95 for Governor; for Court of Appeals, Spence got 204; for U. S. Senator, Pomeroy got 223; for Governor, Francis got 251.

Three houses here owned by the American Fire Clay Co. burned last Saturday afternoon. Only one house was occupied and the fire is supposed to have started from a defective chimney or a spark on the roof. Parties passing in an automobile discovered the fire and gave the alarm. Most of the household goods were saved. The family burned out is now living at Marquis.
